

SNIPPETS

NEWS SNIPPETS

December 11 1882

Mr. John Riordan, of the "American" takes possession of Brophy's Hotel, Ballarat, on Wednesday the 20th, and his place here will be filled by Mrs. Haines, of the Carlton Club Hotel, Fitzroy.

December 25 1882

Host Riordan informs his friends that he has taken Brophy's Hotel, Ballarat, where he will be pleased to meet his friends during the Christmas and New Year Holidays. Mrs. Haines also notifies having succeeded Mr. J. Riordan at the American, where customer

AMERICAN HOTEL- Persons indebted to Mr. JOHN RIORDAN, who is leaving Creswick, will oblige by settling their accounts without delay.

I will be at the American Hotel on WEDNESDAY next from 1 o'clock to 5 to settle all ACCOUNTS due by me.

J. RIORDAN.

July 20 1911

The vigorous ringing of the fire bell about 5 o'clock on Tuesday morning, and its continuance for a considerable time indicated that something out of the ordinary in the way of conflagrations had occurred. This indeed proved to be the case, as the America

August 1 1911

Tenders are invited for taking down and stacking the whole of the wooden portion of the American Hotel Building. Tenders will be received by Mr. T. Haines, licensee. till Tuesday next. August 3rd.

August 22 1911

The work of demolishing the front wooden portion of the American Hotel, which was partially destroyed by fire a few weeks ago, is now completed, and tenders will shortly be called for the erection of the up-to-date brick building which is to take its plac

September 2 1911

The timber and iron contained in the American Hotel, which was partly destroyed by fire recently, was disposed of by auction by Messrs Bessemeres and Walker on Wednesday afternoon, when there was a good demand for the bulk of the various lots, and the sal

September 7 1911

TENDERS will be received. closing FRIDAY. 8th SEPTEMBER. at 4 o'clock. for the ERECTION of AMERICAN HOTEL. Creswick.

For T. Haines, Esq.

Plans, etc, on premises, and at Ballarat Brewing Cos. Office, Dana Street,

GLEN LORIMER, Architect.

October 26 1911

In recognition of the splendid work done by the Creswick fire brigade in saving portion of the old American Hotel buildings from destruction, on the occasion of the recent fire, the proprietor, (Mr. T. Haines) has generously made a donation of £1 2/ to th